

BasementLiving Group
Increase Your Living Space

MAXI SUMP SYSTEM

Protect your basement with BLG's unique Maxi Pump water control system

The System is an integral part of the design to control the environment in your basement making it suitable for use as living accommodation or dry storage.

You can rest assured that this system, along with the range of Basement Living Group products, are at the forefront of the technology giving you peace of mind that your basement will remain dry and habitable for decades to come.

BasementLiving Group

Increase Your Living Space

MAXI SUMP SYSTEM

MAXI SUMP FEATURES

- Easy to install
- Versatile enabling the installer to locate inlets to suit any basement configuration
- Odour tight locking access cover
- Variable inlet positions
- Total volume capacity of 100 litres, reducing pump operation
- Durable Polythene tank (6mm thick)
- Pre-moulded anti-flotation points preventing movement below ground
- Integral step for dual pump setup
- 2 ton loading cover
- Unique configuration offering single, dual or triple pump setup in one sump

SUMP PUMP FEATURES

- Integral non-return valve preventing back flow
- Powerful submersible pump with 102 litres per min for one unit up to 7 meter head of water
- Fully automatic operation
- Easy to change and service
- Durable easy clean cast iron casing
- Will cope with debris up to 10mm
- Sealed float arm

DRAINAGE FEATURES

- Three different internal system of drainage to suit all basement construction
- All systems uniquely designed and installed in situ
- Direct connection to the sump

